Take another look at Bradford

Here is a city with outstanding potential for further growth and development. In fact, the Bradford regeneration project is one that's very close to our heart.

As longstanding supporters of the City, we're proud of our involvement with the Odeon, Exchange Court, Listerhills and Eastbrook Hall. We've represented Bradford at MIPIM and other events, and sit on the West Yorkshire Authorities legal panel, which includes Bradford Council. We're working with InCommunities and its partners, including the Homes and Communities Agency, to deliver housing regeneration schemes within the District.

Business in Bradford is looking good. If you'd like a fresh perspective, get in touch.
