

Ryton

The right location

ProLogis Park Ryton is superbly located at the heart of the UK's road network.

The right workforce

The local workforce has the right mix of skills for industrial and distribution occupiers. Wages in Coventry are lower than the regional average.

The right developer

ProLogis are world leaders in the design and construction of distribution warehouses.

Build to suit opportunities totalling 1,250,000ft² at the UK's most central industrial and distribution location
