

Medway

- A prime location for international business

Sites ready for commercial investment

- Chatham Waterfront - exciting town centre development in prestigious waterfront location.
- Chatham Waters - extensive mixed-use regeneration of Chatham Docks.
- Rochester Airport - new commercial employment space with exceptional transport links.

- MidKent College - £86million campus opened in 2011.

Investing in our workforce - MidKent College, a state-of-the-art-campus

- Medway Park, Gillingham

State-of-the-art sports and leisure facilities

- Chatham Maritime - 2,000 new homes, university campus, shopping, offices, leisure and a 500-berth marina.
- Rochester Riverside - 32 hectare mixed-use development in progress.

Mixed-use riverside developments

Major transport infrastructure

- High speed trains to London in 33 minutes.
- Chatham Waterfront Bus Station.
- London Thamesport - deep water port.
- Major investment in new rail stations including a new station at Rochester.

- Innovation Centre Medway - a flexible, serviced workspace with superfast broadband for small businesses.

A corridor of business innovation and growth

- Home to four universities with cutting-edge research and development capabilities.

World-class university research and teaching

Showcasing the natural home of energy and environmental technologies

- Three gas-fired power stations, liquefied-natural-gas and aviation fuel facilities.

- No.1 Smithery, The Historic Dockyard Chatham.

A strong tourism economy

Championing advanced manufacturing growth

- Medway is home to a large, well-established manufacturing base including BAE Systems. BAE Systems is the market leader in hybrid propulsion and power management systems including HybriDrive®, the most efficient hybrid system developed.