

McKay
Securities PLC

McKay Securities PLC is a Reading-based commercial property investment company with Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) status.

Since flotation in 1959, McKay has established a long track record of developing and refurbishing high quality, contemporary and innovative industrial and office properties in the South East of England. Completed schemes are retained and managed for long term growth within the Company's portfolio.

75% of the portfolio has either been developed or refurbished by McKay using some of the best-known architects of their time to create properties attractive to occupiers. The company's Reading portfolio includes local landmarks Great Brighams Mead by Broadway Malyan and 20 Greyfriars Road by Terry Farrell.

McKay is keen to increase the size of its portfolio in and around Reading and has funds available to work with tenants and occupiers to deliver occupational solutions.
